

THE ALFRED TENNYSON

Great British Beef Week

We are celebrating British beef week by feasting on two superb Great British Rare breeds, the White Park coming from Lyons Hill Farm in Dorset and a pure breed Highland cattle from Cortachy, Scotland.

White Park being one of the oldest breeds in the UK and the Highland cattle being one of the most well-known.

Please ask your waiter for today's breed.

Starters

Croquettes £8

wild garlic mayonnaise

Bresaola £9.5

rocket, Duddleswell cheese, capers

Mains

Slow cooked short rib £20

Wye Valley asparagus, St Georges mushrooms

White Park rump £20

bone marrow mash, wild hops, thyme jus

Puddings

Hay panna cotta £7.5

Yorkshire rhubarb

Please inform a staff member if you have any dietary or allergen requirements.